Message from the Principal:

Attendance Guidelines

Regular attendance is necessary if one is to be successful in school. Absentees miss valuable class instruction, discussion, and continuity of work. Because of this, leaving school for sports-related trips or vacation is discouraged because these absences may result in lowered achievement levels. It is the family's (student's) responsibility to ensure work is made up. It is the responsibility of each family to have students in regular attendance. If it is necessary for a student to be absent for an entire day or a portion of the day, the PARENT is to contact the school secretary by phone each day the student is absent. If the parent/guardian fails to notify the school, the school may attempt to contact the parent/guardian. Students who are absent without a parent's or guardian's excuse may be considered truant. The school encourages parents to schedule physician, dental, and mental health appointments after school.

Parents/guardians may request homework ahead of student being absent. Students will have a reasonable amount of time to complete make-up work (typically one day for each day absent). Tests or long term projects assigned prior to an absence are due or are to be taken on original assigned dates.

Any time a student is not in school, with the exception of a school-related function, the absence will be counted on the class attendance record and the report card. The school has the right to request that any absence be substantiated by an official document, such as a letter from a physician, etc.

Truancy

Truancy is defined as being absent from school without permission.

1. Truancy is a violation of the New Mexico Education Code.
2. Truancy will not be tolerated.
3. No truant student will be readmitted until a conference with parent(s)/guardian(s) and the principal has been held.
4. Truancy may cause a student to be dis-enrolled.

Noteworthy Book Fair Activities

Hero or Villain Bucket: These buckets will be meant for loose change votes for our lovely model, Ms. Roncy to dress-up. There will be two buckets where votes can be cast to see her dress-up for a day as a Fantasy Hero or an Enchanted Forest Villain. The bucket with the most money will determine whether she be friend or foe. The buckets will go up for Family Night and remain until the end of Book Fair. She will come dressed as her fate that Friday, Oct. 19. All proceeds go towards library budget.

Cosplay/Dress up: Everyone who is dressed up will receive a ticket at the door for a free entry into the main drawing "Fantasy Family Basket".

Door Décor: Ever wonder what a door to another realm looks like? Well now you get to choose which door best illustrates that spirit. Polls for best decorated door open during Family Night on October 5th and run through the entire next week. Door prep will begin the week of the 1st to give time for the classes to do their best. The door with the most votes receives a Customized Class Book Box!
