Message from the Principal:

Christmas is one of my favorite times of year! I love the endless selection of Christmas music that you hear playing everywhere you go, I love the sight of Christmas decorations and wrapping paper throughout the aisles of all of the stores, and I stand in awe at the sight of the beautifully lit street corners and houses.

Beyond all of these surface signs and joys of Christmas there is a much more meaningful element to the season. It is something that is quickly brought back to the forefront of our minds as we celebrate the first Sunday of Advent in our school and in our parish. Lighting the advent wreath for the first time each year is a moment that I most definitely look forward to. While it is easy to get wrapped up in the commercial side of Christmas, the time that we take to quiet our minds and hearts, dim the lights, and light the first purple candle on our wreath is the moment when the excitement for the coming of Jesus is reignited in our hearts. As adults I believe we have a responsibility to continue to bring the focus back throughout the season to the waiting and anticipation of the birth of Jesus. We need to model the pause, contemplation and prayer in our families and with our children so that they too will be reminded of the coming of baby Jesus.

During this season of advent I encourage you as families to set aside a special time each week to gather together and light a candle on an advent wreath in your home. Use this as a time to slow things down and remind one another about the special gift that was the birth of baby Jesus. During these winter days with very little light, we are reminded that Jesus is the Light of the World. Take the time together to be mindful of the true spirit of the season, and help our little ones and our young adults shift their focus back on the season of Advent during this very important time in our liturgical year.

Our family at Sacred Heart wishes to extend the warmest of Christmas wishes to all of you. May God bless you and yours during this festive season!

Merry Christmas,

Mrs. Beyhan

Thank you to another amazing parent committee for organizing our float for the Christmas Parade. We appreciate all your hard work.
